Celebrating “Its My Duty” by Department of Justice at New Delhi World Book Fair

Department of Justice is participating in New Delhi World Book Fair, 2020 from 04th January, 2020 to 12th January, 2020. A Stall (at Hall No.8 Stall No 4 and 5) on “Constitution and Citizens’ Duties” is being set up in this World Book Fair organized by National Book Trust for the above period. The Stall would display “digital exhibition” that includes facts relating to Constitution, Constituent Assembly, excerpts of speeches of the founding members of the Constituent Assembly.

“Kiosk” for reading of Preamble has been planned to extol more and more children and their parents /school teachers to read the Preamble and obtain a certificate of reading the Preamble.

A quiz competition on “Constitution and Citizens Duties” is also being organized with School Children on 7th and 9th January, 2020 in the Theme pavilion.

A Preamble & Fundamental Duties Wall of signature is being displayed at two prominent places in the exhibition so that public at large could read the Preamble & sign to show their commitment to the Preamble & Fundamental Duties enunciated in the Indian Constitution.
